Percy Lehman to Head Roscommon Fund Raising

This is the sixth in a series of articles depicting the events associated with the Fund Raising Campaign of Mercy Hospital, Grayling.

The photo shows Mr. and Mrs. Percy Lehman from the Roscommon area. Mr. Lehman will be covering this area for the Mercy Hospital Campaign.

This News release was prepared by Joe Schrader, member of the Publicity Committee.

Gloria Kraus, Chairperson of Mercy Hospital's Campaign Fund Drive, recently announced the appointment of Percy Lehman to the position of Roscommon County Co-Chairman. Mr. Lehman will be assisted in the county's endeavor for the hospital expansion by his wife, Ruth. In announcing the appointment, Mrs. Kraus had this to say of the Leh-mans: "We're delighted that Percy and his wife have agreed to participate in our fund-raising campaign. Both he and his wife Ruth will provide invaluable assistance and support in our hospital expansion movement."

Mr. Lehman will be responsible for fund-raising activities in Roscommon County, one which Mercy Hospital serves almost exclusively. His area will also include the Houghton and Higgins Lake communities.

Mr. Lehman is the Chairman of the Board for the Roscommon State Bank, starting there in 1945 as a cashier. He advanced continually throughout his career at the bank, eventually becoming the bank President, a position he served from 1970 to 1974. He has spent 50 years in the banking business.

Mr. Lehman is a graduate of the School of Banking at Ferris State Institute, graduating in 1928. He started his banking career as a bookkeeper in Pontiac. He has taken banking classes in the American Institute of Banking and has taught classes in Roscommon on a regular basis.

And Thunder Struck Again!

Area residents "battered down the hatches" last Saturday night as a noisy thunderstorm struck the Crawford County area.

It was a year ago Labor Day weekend that an awesome storm not determined a tornado by the experts, smashed through the County, uprooting trees, demolishing and damaging buildings throughout the area and caused thousands of dollars worth of damage throughout the community.

Fortunately, Saturday's storm was mild compared to a year ago, but it did create some reminiscence. The skies cleared though, and all in all, it was a beautiful weekend for residents and travelers passing through.

Youths "Borrow" Car — End Up In Probate Court

Two youths, ages 15 and 14, who "borrowed" a family car early Saturday morning, both ended up in Mercy Hospital for treatment of injuries after their car rolled over after being pursued by Crawford County Sheriff Dept. deputies. The Sheriff's Dept. vehicle, investigating a breaking and entering in the area of I-75 and M-76, came upon the car the juveniles were driving and, after a 4-mile chase, apprehended the youths after their car ran into the ditch and rolled over. Both have been petitioned to Probate Court.

Even though nothing serious happened in the County over the weekend, Crawford County Sheriff Curt Haas reported a busy weekend nonetheless. A total of 50 complaints were recorded, including 10 personal injury accidents, 10 personal damage accidents, 7 breaking and enterings, and 6 malicious destruction complaints were answered. Ambulance crews were called out four times.

Tag Sale Nets Needed Hospital $$$$

Mark your calendar for this too! The First Hospital Auxiliary Charity Ball will be held on Saturday, September 30th at the Camp Grayling Officer's Club. The "Trends", a popular band from the Saginaw area will provide dancing music. Further details will be published in the next few weeks.

Vikings In Grid Season Opener

At Harrison Friday Night

by Joe Schrader

On a note of optimism, Head Coach Bill Klinger predicted that his 1978 squad will improve last year's record. The team's record last year was 1-8, the only victory coming against Harrison, who will provide the Viking Squad's first opposition this season. "We have overall good team speed," commented Klinger, "and a good passing game and plenty of versatility in the backfield." The Varsity squad opens its season this Friday in an away game, scheduled for 7:30 p.m. at Harrison. Note this change. The game was originally scheduled here at home under the lights. A delay in lighting installation has caused an abrupt change in plans.

Three local gridiron teams will take to the field this week, vying for MHS-conference titles. Over 120 hopefuls turned out at the team's first practice August 14th and 100 are still around, representing Grayling in this year's gridiron battles. According to Coach Klinger, the first week consisted of night practices, then expanded into two practices per day during the second and third weeks of play.

Historical Development Of Public Welfare

[By Maureen McNamara]

In order to better understand the basic concept upon which present day public welfare is based, it is necessary to delve a bit upon the historical philosophy on which the "general welfare" from the Preamble to the Constitution is based. "Promoting the General Welfare" found its roots in the religious beliefs and values of Western Civilization which have been expressed in

Judeo-Christian belief that we are "our brother's keeper," and the most important value to a civilized society is its high regard for individual life and dignity.

In the early, mostly agrarian days of the United States, when life was considerably less complicated, it was possible for the extended family, religious organizations, and neighbors to provide help for the needy. People, in general, had strong family and religious ties with the basic conviction that it was fundamental to "take care of one's own." However, as people began to move about more freely with the advent of the Industrial Revolution, it became essential to set up a system of "public welfare" for those who had no one else to help them when they were in need.

The development of welfare in the United States and in Michigan was modeled, to a large extent, after the English Poor Laws. The "Poor Laws" in Michigan paralleled those developed elsewhere in the United States, although prior to 1790, no "poor" officials existed in the Northwest Territory which included Michigan. However, in 1790, the Territorial government enacted a law which required the justices of the Court of General Sessions for the counties to appoint one or more "poor" officials. We'll see Friday night when the Vikes kick off this year's gridiron season. Remember—they'll be in Harrison instead of here at home. They won there last year, their only season victory. We predict they'll repeat.

Kirtland's Warbler Population Declines

According to data from the 1976 census of the Kirtland's warbler, the world population of this endangered songbird shows about a 10 percent decline.

This year biologists tallied 197 male Kirtland's warblers, with 219 were counted in 1977. Assuming there are an equal number of females, the total breeding population would be just under 400 birds.

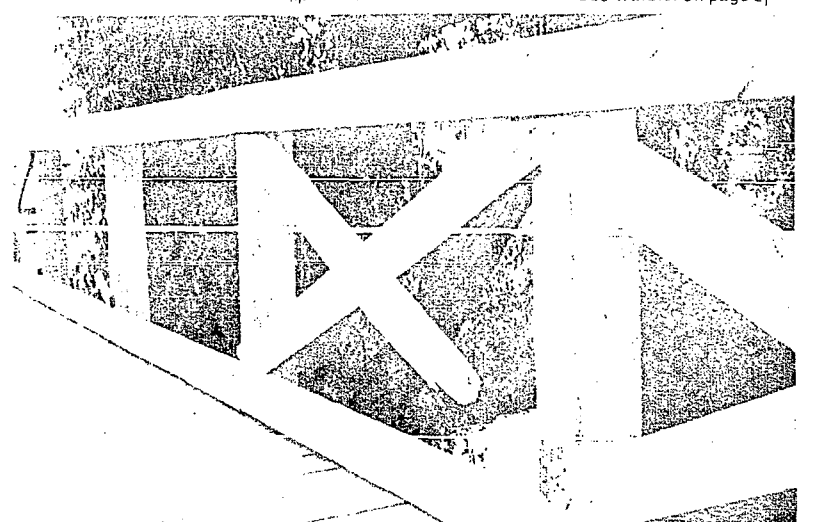

The Kirtland's warbler census is an annual event which has been conducted in recent years by personnel from the Michigan Department of Natural Resources, U.S. Forest Service, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, and interested members of the public.

The breeding ground for this species is six counties in Michigan's northern Lower Peninsula.

Most of the decline in population was in Ogemaw County. Chances are habitat probably accounts for the decline. The Kirtland's warbler breeding habitat is tied to young jack pine stands where nests are concealed by heavy ground vegetation.

Cowbirds also pose a unique threat to the Kirtland's warbler. Cowbirds lay their eggs in warbler nests and the young are raised by parent warblers. Newly hatched Kirtland's warblers cannot compete with the cowbird fledglings.

In Michigan, a joint effort at cowbird control by the Department of Natural Resources, Audubon Society, Forest Service, and the Fish and Wildlife Service is in progress. [See Warbler on page 2]

DOWNTOWN VANDALISM was apparent last week when a number of support posts from the bridge at the City Park were demolished. ## From Our Corner ...

As Labor Day's long weekend begins to wind down we have been sitting here and wondering just where did the summer of '78 disappear to ... for the life of it seems this should be Memorial Day weekend, the beginning, not the end of summer ... possibly it could be just our age creeping up on us, plus our dislike for the winter months that are just ahead, and seem to last forever ...

But then, we do have the two golden months to look forward to until the white of winter envelopes us ... seems like not too long ago, when Labor Day passed, the small northern towns seemed to just fold up and hibernate until spring ... not so anymore ... with the end of summer, brings the travelers seeking the beauty of autumn during September and October ... for beauty, they have to be the sister months of the year.

For our readers who by chance were not in our area last Saturday night, we would like to relate that a thunderstorm hit here that reminded us, as we laid on the couch, that it was a year ago the near tornado (?) ripped through Grayling on the Sunday prior to Labor Day ... Saturday night's storm lacked only the vicious winds that accompanied the '77 storm ...

Also for our readers who may have misinterpreted our last week's corner ... when we told about being the printer's devil, this all happened to us when we were still in high school in Gaylord, like in the 1930's ... Paul MacDonald was the editor made reference to, and O. P. Schumann was editor at that same time here ...

We came to Grayling in the early part of 1946, following four years in the Army, and went to work for Bob and Eva Strong as a linotype operator and printer ... we still haven't been able to lose the devil image even though there is no more lead to melt!

We understand the leprechaun has a new plaything ... a house-boat moored at Lake Margrethe ... we never thought he would even get close to the lake since they found a shark there some years ago.

An idle thought ... we never did get anyone to enter the largest cucumber contest in Crawford County ... we don't know, maybe they don't grow here in our sandy soil that is ideal for jack pine ... Now, that also brought an idle thought back from a couple days ago ... we were asked what we were going to put under the flag on the front page (Crawford County Avalanche) where now appears "Archery Capital of the World" ... once the archery moves to Florida ... we could put "Home of the Jack Pine", instead we're going to ask our readers to send in an appropriate saying ... and, to the winner goes a year's subscription to your favorite newspaper ...

As we are preparing to end our corner Monday afternoon (we're still confused on the two Sundays) we just heard a report of another severe thunderstorm warning for north of here ... just like we heard Saturday night, and if Saturday is any indication, we better end right now and go batten down the hatches ...

Have a nice week ... be a friend, and you will gain one.

"We'll not only fix the store, but with an Auto-Owners Business Interruption policy, we'll even pay your salaries, interest and other continuing expenses while you're in repair."

The Bible Speaks

From Calvary Baptist Church

Satan's Release, Rebellion
& Retribution
Revelation 20:7-10

After Satan is released from 1000 years in prison, he returns to the earth and organizes a world-wide rebellion against God which leads to Satan's eternal judgment in Hell.

1. Satan's Release, Verse 7 "And when the thousand years are expired, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison." It is ironic that some people can't find any mention in their Bibles of the 1000 year reign of Christ. It is repeated 7 times in the first seven verses of this chapter alone. Satan's release comes at the close of this period.

2. Satan's Rebellion, Verses 8, 9 "And shall go out to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battle: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea. And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them."

Satan will show no signs of reformation after 1000 years in prison. He shall set out immediately to organize armies of millions of people to follow him to Jerusalem to challenge Jesus Christ and the saints for control of the earth.

This multitude of millions will be those born during the 1000 year reign of Christ who never accepted the leadership of Christ. When Satan appears they will turn immediately and follow Satan. These armies will be destroyed by fire just as Sodom and Gomorrah. This will mark the last rebellion against God.

3. Satan's Retribution, Verse 10 "And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever." Some people don't like this rather picture of judgment, but it is Hell by any name or description you may wish to give it.

Notice that the two persons who will be in Hell the longest are a politician and a preacher. One for deceiving people in the civil realm and the other for deceiving people in the religious realm. God's judgment will be greatest for those who mislead people in these two areas because they act as servants of God. I have personally interviewed preachers in the Grayling area who don't believe the Bible is the inerrant infallible Word of God. Others who don't believe the death, burial and resurrection of Jesus Christ for sin is the only way to heaven, and last I have interviewed others who deny that Jesus Christ is God. Unless they repent and accept Jesus Christ as savior and Lord, they will someday suffer torment day and night for ever and ever beside the False Prophet. Are you a deceived follower of men, or a born-again follower of Jesus Christ? (adv.)

At Camp Lejeune

Marine Second Lieutenant Robert D. Gilbert, son of Donald G. and Beverly J. Gilbert of Route 1, FreJeric, has reported for duty with the 2d Force Service Support Group, Camp Lejeune, N. C.

A 1975 graduate of Florida Bible College, Hollywood, Fla., with a Bachelor of Arts degree, he joined the Marine Corps in August 1976.

COME AND HEAR THE GOOD NEWS: September 10-14 at the Grayling High School, 7:30 p.m., nightly. The Good News Circle Crusade is a concerned effort by area churches and Christians in the Grayling, Gaylord, Mio, Roscommon, Fairview and Houghton Lake Area to bring the Gospel of Jesus Christ to the attention of every person in the area.

The Good News Circle is a musical evangelistic team composed of young men and women who believe that in Christianity they have found a faith worth sharing. Bob Laurent, evangelist with the Good News Circle, formed the team while in college. In the summer of 1968 they held their first series of outdoor evangelistic meetings. When Bob graduated from seminary in 1971, the Good News Circle embarked on a year-round schedule of five day crusades.

The team uses the medium of contemporary folk-rock music to help convey the message of dynamic Christianity, of a Christ who points out man's rebellious self-centeredness, and of a God who in loving self-sacrifice provides a means of reconciliation. Each night the team challenges individuals to respond to this 'Good News' and become what the apostle Paul called a new creation in Christ.

Everyone is welcome to attend. Young and Old and we urge you to bring a friend and share the Good News Of Jesus Christ with others in your community. There is no admission charge for the Crusade as we are believing by faith for our financial needs to be met through a free will love offering or donation by concerned Christians throughout the area.

Forecasters predict that clothing will cost approximately 20 percent more this fall than last.

Hand-me-downs are one way parents can cut some costs as they prepare children for the return to school. Michigan State University clothing specialists say.

Your second or third child may enjoy hand-me-downs more if you change them before passing them along. Personalize Hand-Me-Downs

Your children will be more likely to feel good about wearing their brother's or sister's clothing if you personalize it. Embroidering a child's name on a T-shirt or dress, adding appliques of favorite animals, ribbons and ricrac will help make the clothes an expression of his/her individuality.

To avoid washing problems, be sure the fabric or trims you want to add require the same care as the original garment. Remember to pre-shrink all new fabrics and trims before applying them to clothing.

An advanced seamstress may want to restyle garments. A dress can be refashioned into a tunic, a smock top or jumper by simply removing sleeves and collar. Popular jean skirts can be created by taking out leg seams and adding center front and back panels in contrasting colors.

For additional ideas on how to spruce up hand-me-downs, consider your child's likes and dislikes. The more you notice what clothes your child likes, the more you'll be able to adapt to hand-me-downs to his or her needs.

Roaring 20s?

Harding, Carter presidencies have great deal in common

Richard Milliman

Does history repeat? Undoubtedly. The only question really is when? This is brought to mind by the recent public frenzy over a few relatively unimportant events:

A young female swimmer attempts to swim from Cuba to Florida. She is the subject of rapt public attention and widespread public sympathy when she falls short.

At the same time, another female swimmer tries to make it from Bermuda to Florida. Although not as daring as the Cuba swimmer, the Bermuda swimmer again is the subject of rapt public attention and support.

Then three men, all of whom are old enough to know better, take off in a hot air balloon to float from the United States to Europe. They make it. Paris turns out with a salute reminiscent of Lindbergh in 1927. The balloonists proceed to London to another tumult. And so it goes.

Over in the world of professional sport, a hot-tempered baseball manager takes on the rich owner and the over-paid super-star, and wins ... a little talent by hard-nosed third baseman goes for the long-standing consecutive game hitting record and delights millions with his grit and style ... a fuzzycheeked kid jockey wins the big ones, and becomes an idol of sorts.

It looks like the Roaring Twenties all over again in this country. Mind you, I was not a personal witness to most of this so-called "Age of Innocence," but history is available for those who would look.

Apparently we are seeking heroes. We are searching for something to cheer about. We need a release. Channel swimmers and balloonists and high-strung athletes will do ... especially when more serious public figure heroes are in such short supply.

The similarity with the 1920's does not stop there, either. At least one syndicated writer, has found a distinct kinship between the White House under Jimmy Carter and the administration of the generally unlamented Warren G. Harding, of all people.

Harding and Nixon we have heard about ... Teapot Dome and Watergate, after all. But Harding and Carter?

Columnist John Roche finds "singular parallels" between the Harding and Carter administrations:

"Harding was seen as a tranquilizer after the incredible tensions of Wilson's war and 'Red Scare'; Carter as a friendly ole boy who would exorcise the specters of Indochina, Watergate and the 'Imperial Presidency,'" Roche writes.

"Indeed, each won by advocating the American version of the withering away of the state."

Roche claims that Harding, "while personally honest, couldn't tell a principle from a fire plug," and cites Harding's belief that "ideas were irrelevant to politics."

As a result, Roche says, the Harding administration "was a wholly disorganized act." He continues: "The President, animated by no strong body of convictions except belief in 'Normalcy,' turned the kiddies loose to play. Secretary of State Charles Evans Hughes, a brilliant, aloof figure, made foreign policy. Secretary of the Treasury Andrew Mellon ran a tight, clean ship, and determined American financial policy. Elsewhere — notably in the departments of Justice and Interior — the thieves did their own thing. All the President asked was loyalty."

Then Roche points to "the varying views of the top foreign policy spokesmen" in the Carter team, including Vance, Brzezinski, Young and Brown.

With Carter at the helm today, Roche finds "odd resemblances to the earlier era. Leaving aside the vast difference in personal lifestyles, there is the same absence of an ideological thrust."

The Roaring Twenties like the Late Seventies and Early Eighties?

It's a sobering thought, but it may not be as far off base as it may sound at first blush. There are comparisons, after all.

History also teaches us that the 1920's were brought to a crashing climax by the Big Depression when our economy gave out.

Quick question: Have you taken a good look at today's economy lately?

SUNDAY SCHOOL ROUND-UP—Calvary Baptist Church will present "Round-up Sunday" this Sunday, September 10th at 9:45 a.m. with special guests, Cowboy Ken and Aunt Marge Schmidt from Onaway, Mich., with a program of magic and music with a "message". Also featured in the program will be Danny the talking Doll, Aunt Marge's Ventriloquist figure, and a contest to stimulate the youngsters to read their Bibles and learn memory verses. The Schmidt's will also supply the musical part of the program with their guitar, and bells.

Aunt Marge is a graduate of the Moody Bible Institute in Chicago. Cowboy Ken had his training at the Grand Rapids School of Bible and Music, in Grand Rapids, Michigan. Both are children's specialists in the field of Evangelism. The program they will present at the Calvary Baptist Church, located 1 1/2 miles west of Grayling on M-72, will be entertaining as well as inspiring. All family members are invited to attend.

New Format For Lottery Drawing

With the sale of WWJ television to Post-Newsweek the weekly "Michigan" television show will be leaving the air after its final show on Thursday, September 7, 1978. Gus Harrison, Lottery Commissioner, announced today that the contestant portion of the show will be held at 10:00 a.m. in the Lansing Ramada Inn (on South Pennsylvania Avenue) beginning September 14th.

The drawing format will be different than the one previously used on television," said the Commissioner, "but we will still be awarding the six participants from $5,000 to as much as $100,000. The remaining finalists, who matched both the two- and three - digit 'Michigan' numbers but were not drawn as one of the six contestants advancing to the final round of play, will win $2,000."

Ron Gumm, General Manager of the Ramada Inn, said he was pleased the lottery selected their facility. "The 'Michigan' Drawing will be held weekly in our Ambassador Room adjacent to our restaurant. We think the room will lend itself to the drawing and provide a convenient location, close to the lottery headquarters and easily accessible by the interstate highway network."

The "Michigan" Drawing will occasionally be held in other Michigan cities according to Mr. Harrison. "Yes, from time to time we will take the drawing to other areas. This will give people a chance to see one of our live drawings and share in the excitement. We like to visit local communities and show everyone a lottery drawing."

Sweet Adelines Activities

Mid-Mitten Chapter met Wednesday, August 30th, for weekly rehearsal with Jan and Paula sharing director duties. Our Director, John, was knee-deep in cement and had to keep working while the sun did shine!!

Much planning for future events was discussed and dates set. A Sunday Miniature Golf Day for the benefit of Sweet Adelines will be held September 17th at the Putt-R-Golf Course in Prudenville. The prices will encourage family outings and should be a fun day.

Our fall Mini-show will be combined with Halloween fun and will be held on October 28th. Look for more information in the coming weeks. We do know witches, ghosts, and maybe even Dracula will visit our show!!!

We are happy to announce that we are again taking orders for those popular "Aluminum Handle Cutlery" which are so good and make excellent gifts. We will have the small knives available and will take orders for special types of knives. Contact any Sweet Adeline for these cutlery items. If you have not tried these knives, here is a good time to do so.

We were happy to have Peg and Gail back with us, and so glad to have Sue Krause back. We missed Sue so much. Mary McLean visited us, who now resides in Grayling. Mary is a member of the Lake-Aire Chapter of LaPorte, Indiana. We hope to see more of Mary.

With the opening of school, rehearsal will again be held in the Roscommon High School Choral Room.

The C.O.O.R. Intermediate School District has established an Alternative Education Program for all special education youth between the ages of 15 and 26 who are not currently enrolled in a school program.

The program is designed to assist students towards completing graduation requirements, exploring vocational placement opportunities and on-the-job training.

The program will be located in the converted farm buildings north of the C.O.O.R. main office. The building consists of two main areas, which will be used for classroom and recreational activities.

We have sufficient materials to meet our instructional needs. However, donations in the way of used, serviceable furniture, magazines, books, storage cabinets, bookcases, etc., would be welcomed to furnish a day room for our students.

Please contact Mary Ziesemer, Teacher, or Richard McEnaney, Director of Special Education, phone: 275-5137, if you have any of the above mentioned items that you would like to donate. We will pick up all donations.

Dear George,

Here I sit, pen in hand, trying to meet the deadline for the paper. I went to T.C. with P.R. because I heard you were seen on Logan's Landing feeding the birds. While eating lunch I saw D.W. & T.B. but you were nowhere in sight.

By not being here you are missing all the excitement at the Scrub Board Laundromat. They are agents for the Reg Doctor and upholstery cleaning machine. Everyone using it is so satisfied. You could even make extra money cleaning carpets. Oh George! We could work & live together. Well — there was some confusion because Mrs. Kelly advertised the Reg Doctor but only said "The Doctor is in at the Scrub Board." Well — Mr. Alf thought she was setting up a medical practice at the laundromat. Mrs. Kelly does a great job dry cleaning and laundering clothes but doesn't know beans about advertising copy.

Patiently waiting, Edith

V.A. Education Growing Short

Time is growing short for those veterans who wish to enroll in college or other GI Bill training this fall. Frank Kilcullen director of the VA regional office in Detroit, cautions.

Students enrolling for the first time this fall under the GI Bill should already be in contact with the school of their choice. Acceptance by the college requires an application as well as testing and deposits in many instances.

Veterans who wish to draw GI Bill benefits must be accepted by an approved VA institution and begin training on a specified date in order to receive their first check at the end of the first month.

Many business and technical schools also require prior enrollment and acceptance sometime before actual classes begin.

About half of the Michigan Vietnam Era veterans have taken training under the GI Bill, and eligibility for training ends 10 years after discharge. Kilcullen said as a result of this record the VA is making every effort to urge those eligible veterans to use the GI Bill benefits before they expire.

Veterans in training full time receive $311 a month if they are single. Other benefits are also available. Full information is available at the VA or from any veterans service organization. Veterans planning to enroll at Kirtland C.C. should remember that fall term at K.C.C. starts in the week of September 4 to 8. For more information, call Carole Chilton at 517-275-5121, extension 270.

Killer Bees Fact Or Fiction?

By Willard Bosserman, County Extension Director
Dr. Roger Hoopingarner, Apiculture Specialist, Mich. State University showed a new film about the killer bees at a bee meeting Thursday August 17, in Rosebush. The film was produced by the United States Department of Agriculture. It told the story of how an American researcher was discovering the truth about killer bees.

The "killer bees" are honey bees which were brought to Brazil with the idea of putting new vigor in honey production there. One characteristic of the African honey bee is that they swarm 12 times more often than our European bees. They also reproduce much more rapidly than our bees. Therefore, they spread more rapidly. They probably would not survive our winter.

The film showed Dr. Taylor, the researcher handling the African bees much the same as European bees. They tend to be a little more aggressive when threatened, otherwise they are no more vicious than our bees. The European bees sting especially when their honey and hive are disturbed. The old saying is, "You would be angry if someone stole your honey and nest."

The killer bee film was just a little added attraction for the meeting. Dr. Hoopingarner came up to discuss making divisions. He urged the 20 beekeepers present to make their own divisions of colonies to strengthen them. He felt our own northern grown bees would be more hardy than those purchased from the south.

He recommended cut comb for all producers to avoid the expense of extracting the honey from the comb. He also gave some hints on wintering bees. He told the group that a snow could be the best protection for the bees. Wrapping the hives with tar paper can be helpful, but he wasn't sure it was economical to do so.

Attend the Church of Your Choice

HIDDEN STRENGTH

It looks like something Don Quixote might have tilted at. Fragile, teetering, like a ludicrous, oversized toy. Yet this scarecrowish windmill can harness energy. Among other things, it can cause water to spill into your kitchen sink.

Things are not always what they seem. The outer package can be a deceiver with people, as well as with objects. Funny, isn't it, that although we know better we respond so readily to the things, the people that look best—the sparkling diamond that turns out to be a rhinestone, the phony with the wonderful, flashing smile?

No one ever makes it through life without stumbling occasionally. So be not ashamed. The thing is to learn by such experiences, to progress and not retreat. In case you've forgotten, the Church is a wonderful teacher.

Wurtsmith Air Force Base. The Air Force Orientation Group's presentation "Flight Through Time" will be featured at the Wurtsmith Air Force Base Open House on Friday, September 8.

The show, which tells the story of flight and of the United States Air Force, will be shown continuously during the 1978 Open House beginning at 10:30 a.m., when gates open to the public.

The program is shown in a 45-seat mobile theater. The exhibit features a multi-image presentation and a stereo sound system.

Artwork, photographs, and sound effects are used throughout the show. The presentation takes viewers from Leonardo da Vinci's dreams of manned flight through the present. Through out the program the Air Force's role in American history is shown.

Visitors will view the show on five screens covering a distance of 20 feet. Fifteen slide projectors and almost 900 slides are used during the 20-minute program.

The annual Open House will also feature performances by the U. S. Air Force Band of Flight, the 40-member concert band from Wright-Patterson AFB near Dayton, Ohio, and the precision flying of the USAF Thunderbirds aerial demonstration team.

Ample parking and refreshment booths will be available for visitors.

4-H Horse Club

Despite clouds and rain showers on Saturday, August 19, a trail ride on horseback and an overnight camp-out by members of two 4-H Horse clubs of neighboring counties was in progress. Representing Kalkaska Co. was Pam Rozycki, member of the "Sand Dusters" 4-H Horse Club.

From Crawford Co. were two Grayling girls, Sharon Golnick and Beth Clark, both members of Tony Latusek's 4-H Horse Club.

The girls met mid way, then continued on to Goose Creek Campgrounds where they camped out overnight. Pat Rozycki, the new 4-H leader of the Sand Dusters accompanied the girls and helped set up camp. The ride and the camp-out was enjoyed by all.

That's because he's still listed as just "Michael W. Leon" in the telephone directory. There's no mention of his wife Joan. Nor their three teenagers. After all, don't they deserve their own listings?

Well now you can let everybody know about the great things happening in your life with the new edition of your telephone directory. It's going to press soon. So if you're about to make any changes or add a dual name listing, now's the time to do it.

COOR Screening Program Underway

The C.O.O.R. Intermediate School District Child Find Program and the Crawford County Health Dept. are sponsoring the Steps Up Developmental Screening Program to identify children from birth to three years old, who may have a learning handicap.

The program takes place in the regularly scheduled immunization clinics, held on the fourth Monday of the month, from 9:00-11:00 and 1:00-3:00, at the Crawford County Health Dept. in Grayling. Staffing of the program consists of C.O.O.R. professionals, health department nurses and volunteers. The Steps Up Program now needs volunteers to help with the screening at the clinics.

Handicapped children can benefit greatly from early intervention, that is, special help for both the child and his or her parents, to stimulate maximum development of skills in all areas. Before these children can be helped, however, they must be identified to the intermediate school district, through parent, physician or other referral. The Steps Up Program is a simple and efficient device to check young children in most developmental areas, such as motor skills, language, cognition, hearing and vision, and hip placement.

The child is evaluated for skills appropriate to his age by direct observation and parents' reports. If there is any evidence of a possible handicap, the child is referred for further professional testing. From these results, a determination of handicap and appropriate special services is made by the Educational Planning and Placement Committee.

The Steps Up Program would not be possible without the help of the Crawford County Health Dept. and the volunteers. The program needs volunteers to help with the administration of the Steps Up Screening Program. If you are interested, please call C.O.O.R. Child Find collect, (517) 275-5137.

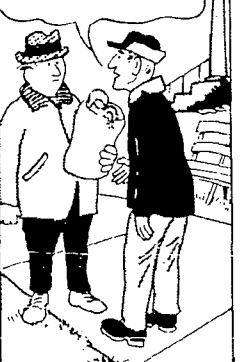

The next Immunization Clinic-Steps Up Program will be held on September 25, 1978.

Bits O' Talk

by Fay Bovee
Guests of Mrs. John Brady for most of last week were a daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. John Tobin of Toledo, and a daughter and granddaughter, Mrs. William Eldred (Ann Brady) of West Bloomfield, and Mrs. Jules Levey (Pam Eldred) of Farmington Hills.

The Bob Bovees were in Detroit a week ago Monday and Tuesday on business and continued on to Saugerties, N. Y. where they visited their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Smith, in their new home. The Bovees returned Labor Day.

Sorry about the lack of news this week, folks. Please call me evenings from now on, 348-7017 or leave word at the Avalanche, 348-6811.

Are your students going back to college? Give me a call.

Welfare

more "overseers of the poor" in each township. The first "overseers" were appointed in Michigan in 1801 and served at the township level.

When Michigan became a state in 1837, the township plan of relief was abolished and the legislative bodies of the respective counties were authorized to appoint three superintendents of the poor to administer the poorhouse and to otherwise care for the destitute. This is the historical basis for the present-day county "Social Services Board".

(Next week - "The Role of the county Social Services Board".)

Hot Lunch Menu

Week of Sept. 4 through 8

Monday: Labor Day.

Tuesday: Welcome Back.

Wednesday: Sloppy Joes, Buttered Corn, Peaches and Pickles.

Thursday: Spaghetti, Buttered Beans, Applesauce, Bread and Butter.
